NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES ISSUED BY THE WRIGHT COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES AGENCY

With your application or involvement with services provided by our Agency, or another provider with which our Agency is affiliated, we are required to inform you about a federal law that went into effect on April 14, 2003. It defines privacy rights for anyone receiving any kind of health care services. The law is called the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

The attached Privacy Rights Notice tells you about:

- Privacy within Wright County Human Services Agency Health Care Programs.
- How medical information about you can be used.
- How you can access this information.

Please read it carefully and keep it for your records.

Your signature acknowledges our providing you with the above-noted "Privacy Rights Notice."
