PARENTS FOREVER™ IS PARENT APPROVED

Here are some examples of feedback from parent participants:

"It's changed me! It's taken the focus off of me and put it on "Where do my kids fall into play here? It was good!"

"I've eliminated any criticism of the other parent...not making the children choose sides."

"It helped me be more aware of my child's needs and pay more attention to his feelings."

PARENTS FOREVER™ IS COURT APPROVED

The Honorable Bruce W. Christopherson, district court justice in Minnesota's Eighth Judicial District, has said, "Although I sparingly cast support for programs, I enthusiastically strike the gong for Parents Forever." As a result of the program, Judge Christopherson has observed:

- More disputes settled voluntarily.
- Less child stress.
- Less cost in time and money to the legal system.
- Less cost in time and money to the divorcing parents.
- A greater likelihood of settling future disagreements.

ABOUT PARENTS FOREVER™

Parents Forever™ was developed as an educational program for parents experiencing family transition, such as divorce or separation. It is based on the research about divorce and its effects on children, as well as our 20+ years working with facilitators and participants (aka parents) of the program.

Parents Forever™ courses reflect the belief that if parents engage in healthy self-care, parent-child relationships, and co-parenting relationships, their children will experience more positive outcomes after a divorce or separation. Their whole family will benefit.

Parents Forever™ in-person and online courses have been approved by the Minnesota Supreme Court. They meet and exceed all 25 minimum standards as described by the Minnesota Supreme Court Policy.
